Subject: 2013 ford application

Good morning Chris
Hope all is well.

I am doing some research and have managed to find the Certificate of Conformity for a MY 13 Ford HDV and also the Certification Summary Information Report for that engine family via the EPA website. But the full application doesn't seem to be listed on <http://iaspub.epa.gov/otaqpub/publist1.jsp?page=7> as yet. The test group/engine family is DFMXD06.761A. How can I get a copy of the public version of the application?

Many thanks best
